

VIDEO: BIBLICAL FEMININITY OVERVIEW

Discussion Questions:

- What are some of the stereotypes in the culture and in the church that have impacted your view of what it means to be a woman?
- What is our common calling as women, no matter our roles or season of life?
- The capacities to invite, nurture, and partner give us a common language to try to describe some of the ways we can be strong for others.
 - » Inviting: making room for others to be in relationship with you
 - » Nurturing: coming alongside another to help them flourish
 - » Partnering: advancing the cause of another
- How are the definitions of these words different than what you may have assumed?
- How does our ability to partner reflect the image of the Trinity?
- What are some specific ways you have experienced God as your Ezer?
- How might your individuality and season of life give you both clarity and freedom in how you live out your calling to be strength for others?
